

I am a satellite Radio subscriber and I benefit greatly from the weather information. I am required to travel in much of the rural part of the state and xm is my only reliable radio alternative.